Born in 1981 in Taipei, Taiwan, Hsu Davina 許芳禎 is a New York-based interdisciplinary artist working across fiber, esoteric research, social practice, and public art. After graduating from Parsons School of Design with her BFA in 2009, she enrolled in the School of Visual Arts and received her MFA in 2023. Hsu's practice investigates quantum theory of the soul and Taoist philosophy of inner alchemy through the lens of embodied experience and energetic perception. Working primarily in fiber, she approaches felting as a ritual process and a medium through which embodied felt perception takes physical form.

Hsu's solo exhibitions include Heaven on Earth, Turley Gallery, Hudson, NY (2025); Soft Energy, ArtBridge Projects, New York (2025); Blessing Transmission, presented by ArtBridge in collaboration with Battery Park City Authority, New York (2024); New Futures, a solo booth at The Other Art Fair, ZeroSpace, Brooklyn, NY (2023); Davina Hsu, ContinuED Project Space, School of Visual Arts, New York (2023); Art Fusion, a solo booth at Anderson Art Fair, Mandarin Oriental, Taipei (2022); Bum Bum, Greenpoint Gallery, Brooklyn, NY (2013); Davina Hsu, Illuminated Metropolis Gallery, New York (2013); Mystery Young, Soka Art Center, Taipei (2012); Paintings by Davina Hsu, Art Expo, New York (2010); and Mesmerized Dichotomies, Red Box Studio, Brooklyn, NY (2010).

Hsu has participated in group exhibitions in New York and internationally, including Because, now is the time of monsters, Wassaic Project, Wassaic, NY (2026); A Waking Dream, Fou Gallery, New York (2026); Handle with Ease, Yang.Collective, Long Island City, NY (2026); I Should Have Been a Pair of Ragged Claws, Wassaic Project, Wassaic, NY (2024); and Dwelling in Motion, School of Visual Arts Flatiron Gallery, New York (2022). Her work was also presented at Untitled Art Fair, Miami Beach, FL (2023).

Hsu received the South Battery Park City Resiliency Project Open Call award, presented by ArtBridge in collaboration with Battery Park City Authority (2024); the New Futures Award from The Other Art Fair (2023); and the Edward Zutrau Memorial Award from the School of Visual Arts (2022). She has participated in artist residencies at ChaNorth, Pine Plains, NY (2026), and Wassaic Project, Wassaic, NY (2024).

Hsu Davina lives and works in Brooklyn, NY.
